

I oppose the imposition of the "established business relationship" exemption to the CBA with respect to the Indiana telephone privacy law. Even with my registration on the national do not call list, I am innundated with unwanted telemarketing calls. This and no other group should be given license to disrupt the precious few hours of family time I have each day.